

April 8, 2025

Dear WHO representative,

I am writing in support of application A-30 Urea- and glycerol-based topical moisturizers (emollients) for the treatment of atopic dermatitis to the WHO Essential Medicine List. I am writing as a practicing dermatologist. These medications will clearly make a difference in the quality of life of many patients with skin disease around the world.

Yours truly,

-Bob Dellavalle

--

Robert Dellavalle MD, PhD, MSPH (he/him)
Tenured Professor and Chair
Endowed Dean's Chair for Scientific Excellence
Department of Dermatology
University of Minnesota Medical School | Minneapolis, MN 55455
US Department of Veterans Affairs
Dermatology National Executive Program Director
della056@umn.edu