CERVICAL CANCER ELIMINATION DAY OF ACTION
17 NOVEMBER 2021 | 15:00-17:00 CET
WATCH THE LIVE STREAM OF THE EVENT HERE

OPENING REMARKS
Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, WHO Director-General

HIGH-LEVEL REMARKS
H.E. Mrs Jeannette Kagame, First Lady of Rwanda
H.E. Dr Tsepho Ramaphosa, First Lady of South Africa
H.E. Mrs Neo Jane Masisi, First Lady of Botswana
H.E. Madame Adjoavi Sika Kabore, First Lady of Burkina Faso
H.E. Ambassador Sally Mansfield, Australian Government

CERVICAL CANCER SURVIVOR FROM ZAMBIA
Ms. Karen Nakawala

PROGRESS IN YEAR ONE
WHO Assistant Director-General for Strategic Priorities &
Special Advisor to the Director-General - Dr Princess
Nothemba (Nono) Simelela

PARTNER COMMITMENTS:
Unitaid - Philippe Duneton
FIND - Ilona Kickbusch
L’Initiative (Expertise France) - Eric Fleutelot
Univ of Miami Collaborating Centre -
Community Health Worker in Little Haiti

The Day of Action: Countries & Survivors Around the World
Moderator and Dr Princess Nothemba (Nono) Simelela
Cervical Cancer Survivor Stories
The Henrietta Lacks Initiative: Henrietta Lacks’ Family
Western Pacific
South-East Asia and Eastern Mediterranean
Cervical Cancer Survivor
Ms. Angélique Kidjo, Unicef Goodwill Ambassador
East Africa
Southern Africa
West / Central Africa
Youth – Commonwealth Task Force
Europe
North America
South America
Cervical Cancer Survivor
Director-General’s Expert Group Co-Chair: Prof. Groesbeck Parham
Musical Closing: Sea of Change: Cancer Survivors Musical Group
Dr Princess Nothemba (Nono) Simelela

MEDIA Q&A WILL FOLLOW PRESS EVENT