Access to, and terms and conditions of use of the WHO Global Burns Registry (the "GBR")

Access to the public view of the data contained in the Global Burn Registry is provided by a link at the bottom of this page. Use of the Global Burn Registry and its contents is governed by the terms and conditions set out on this page.

THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE GOVERN YOUR USE OF THE GBR AND ITS CONTENTS. PLEASE READ THEM CAREFULLY.

If you have any questions about the GBR or these Terms and Conditions of Use, use please contact gbr@who.int

1. About the GBR

The GBR, accessible through https://www.who.int/teams/social-determinants-of-health/safety-and-mobility/burns/global-burn-registry provides access to a central database that collates information on burns, with a view to improving their prevention and management.

The GBR provides a standardized platform for data collection, analysis and dissemination regarding burns.

The data contained in the GBR is provided by participating health facilities across the world (not by WHO), and WHO does not verify or validate the data, whether to its accuracy, completeness, or otherwise. Participation in the GBR by health facilities is strictly voluntary, and without remuneration.

The GBR allows users to access the GBR data through its online platform which permits full export of the data so that it can be used in other outputs such as reports, articles and presentations.

Further information on the GBR is available at the above-mentioned URL.

2. Your Use of the GBR Data and acceptance of these Terms and Conditions of Use

Your use of the GBR, including, as applicable, your use of (i) if you are a health facility participating in the GBR, the private data submitted by your health facility into the GBR; (ii) the GBR information made available to the general public by WHO; and (iii) any related contents on the GBR site (together, “GBR Data”) is conditional upon acceptance and compliance with these Terms and Conditions of Use, and by accessing or otherwise using the GBR, you agree to these Terms and Conditions of Use, and form an agreement (this “Agreement”) with WHO.

If you enter into this Agreement on behalf of a third party (including, without limitation, an employer, a client, or an organization), you confirm (represent and warrant) that you are authorized by that third party to enter into this Agreement on their behalf. In such a case, the terms “you” and “your” in this Agreement refer to, and this Agreement applies to, that third party.
WHO may amend these Terms and Conditions of Use at any time by posting an amended version of the terms on the GBR website, which shall be effective as of such date of posting. You should visit the GBR website periodically to review the current Terms and Conditions of Use.

These Terms and Conditions of Use are effective until terminated by WHO. All restrictions, disclaimers, and limitations of liability set out in these Terms and Conditions of Use will survive any such termination.

3. Conditions on your use of GBR Data

WHO makes the GBR Data available to the public, and all data provided on the GBR are available free of charge, and may be copied, modified, and/or distributed, subject to these Terms and Conditions of Use.

In no event shall you use GBR Data:

a. In any manner which infringes the rights of any person or entity, including the rights of WHO or any attributed owner(s) of the GBR Data;
b. In, or in association with, any product marketing, promotional, or commercial activities, including, without limitation, in, or in association with, advertisements, product brochures, company-sponsored web sites, annual reports, or other non-educational publications or distributions;
c. In, or in connection with, the promotion of a commercial enterprise and/or its product(s) or service(s), and/or in any way that suggests that WHO endorses any specific company or products;
d. In, or in connection with, any commercial activities, including, without limitation, the sale of the GBR data, or any derivative works incorporating or based on GBR data;
e. In any political activities;
f. In any way which is contrary to the policies and principles of WHO and/or which might otherwise jeopardize the name or reputation of WHO, its special programmes, and/or its research projects or the attributed owner(s) of the GBR Data;
g. In any manner which is, or could be considered to be, illegal; or
h. In any manner which is in violation of these Terms and Conditions of Use.

4. Anonymity and use of GBR Data

The GBR Data is intended to be, and provided as, anonymous, with any identifiable personal information removed.
You shall not use the information contained in the GBR Data to identify the individuals whose information is contained therein, nor to contact them under any circumstances. Furthermore, you shall not use the GBR Data as a basis for legal, administrative or other actions that can directly affect an individual whose medical or personal information is included in the GBR Data.

5. Legal compliance and ethical approvals required for your use of the GBR Data

You are solely responsible for ensuring that you comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, procedures, and ethical approval requirements applicable to your use of the GBR Data, including, without limitation, if applicable, ethics approval (or a decision that it is not required) from an ethical review panel relating to human subjects research. WHO makes no representation regarding whether your use (or any other use) of the GBR data complies with any ethical or legal requirements, or what the specific legal and/or ethical requirements are with respect to such use, and disclaims all liability and responsibility in that regard.

6. Required attribution for any use of GBR Data

In each public use of GBR Data you shall acknowledge WHO, the GBR, and the ownership of the GBR Data with the following statement:

This data and/or information was obtained from the World Health Organization (WHO) Global Burn Registry (the GBR), accessible through https://www.who.int/teams/social-determinants-of-health/safety-and-mobility/burns/global-burn-registry.

This data was provided to WHO by external health facilities, and WHO does not guarantee or make any express or implied representations regarding this data and/or information, including with respect to its accuracy, reliability, correctness, or fitness for use for a particular purpose. Furthermore, neither WHO nor any health facility contributing information to the GBR is responsible for this work or for any other ancillary work based on, or incorporating, GBR data.

Unless otherwise specified on the GBR website, GBR data originates from a source external to WHO. All rights, including copyright, in GBR data rest with their respective owner(s), per the attribution provided on the GBR website.

7. Updates and revisions to, and limitations of, GBR Data

WHO periodically incorporates, without notice, revisions, updates and improvements to the GBR’s content according to the sources’ availability, but undertakes no obligation to do so, on a timely basis or at all.

WHO will make every reasonable effort to provide continuous access to the GBR. There will, however, be occasions when the GBR will be unavailable for use (including for maintenance). Furthermore, WHO may decide, at any time and its sole discretion, to cease hosting the GBR, or to change or discontinue any feature of the GBR.

8. WHO disclaimers and limitation of liability relating to the GBR and GBR Data

It is not the intention of WHO to provide specific medical advice. You should consult with a qualified physician regarding personal health/illness-related questions.

Although the data providers to GBR Data meet certain criteria for quality control and content, WHO does not guarantee or make any express or implied representations regarding the accuracy, reliability, correctness, fitness for use for a particular purpose, or otherwise, whatsoever, of any the GBR Data. Records may contain inaccuracies or typographical errors.

Your use of the GBR, including GBR Data, is at your own risk. WHO will not be responsible in any manner for any claim, harm, loss or damage, whatsoever, arising from your use of the GBR, or for any detrimental reliance that you may place upon the GBR or GBR Data.

You hereby release, and agree to indemnify and hold harmless, WHO and each provider of GBR Data from any claim relating to your use of GBR Data, including any and all liability, loss, or damage suffered as a result of claims, demands, costs, or judgments arising out of the failure of you or those acting in connection with you to conform to and obey the provisions set forth in these Terms and Conditions of Use.

Records accessible in the GBR website may contain hyperlinks to internet websites operated by third parties. Such hyperlinks are not under the control of WHO, and WHO is not responsible for the contents of any hyperlink or the site it links to. The inclusion of any hyperlink does not imply any endorsement of the linked site by WHO.

Neither WHO nor any of its agents, employees, information providers, or content providers, shall be liable to any user of the GBR or anyone else for any inaccuracy, error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, alteration of or use of any GBR Data, or for its timeliness or completeness, nor shall they be liable for any failure of performance, computer virus, or communication line failure, regardless of cause, or for any damages resulting therefrom.

9. No implied endorsement of WHO or use of the WHO name and/or emblem

You shall not, in connection with your use of the GBR Data, state or imply that WHO endorses or is affiliated with you or your use of the GBR Data, or that WHO endorses any entity, organization, company, or product.

Except for the attribution requirement set forth in Section 6, above, you are not authorized to use the name or emblem of WHO or the GBR in any way. All requests to use the WHO name and/or emblem require advance written approval of WHO.

10. Country or area designations

The designations employed and the presentation of the material in the GBR do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of WHO concerning the legal status of any country, territory, city or area, or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries.

11. References to branded products

It is WHO policy to refer to medical or pharmaceutical products only by generic names, not branded names, and WHO does not endorse any branded product over any other equivalent product.

Certain of the GBR Data originate from parties outside WHO, and may refer to medical or pharmaceutical products by branded names.

The titles, names, and product references employed in the GBR, including any references to branded products, do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of WHO, nor do they imply WHO’s endorsement of a product, nor do they constitute any endorsement or warranty by WHO of the fitness of any product for a particular purpose, including its safety and/or performance.

12. Other matters

This Agreement, including the rights granted under it, shall terminate automatically upon any breach by you of any of its terms. Further, WHO may terminate this Agreement, including the rights granted under it, at any time, with immediate effect, for any reason, by written notice to you. This Agreement is the entire agreement between you and WHO with respect to its subject matter. This Agreement may only be amended by mutual written agreement of you and WHO. Paragraph headings in this Agreement are for reference only.

Any dispute relating to the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, unless amicably settled, be subject to conciliation. In the event of failure of the latter, the dispute shall be settled by arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the modalities to be agreed upon by the parties or, in the absence of agreement, with the rules of arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The parties shall accept the arbitral award as final.

Nothing in or relating to this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any of the privileges and immunities enjoyed by WHO under national or international law and/or as submitting WHO to any national court jurisdiction.
