FOR ALL

Marking the International Day of Persons with Disabilities

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) make explicit references to improve living conditions of persons with disabilities. Out of 17 SDGs, 13 are particularly related to this issue. The International Day for Persons with Disabilities is an occasion to promote an understanding of the key issues and mobilize support for dignity, rights and well-being for all. The challenge is: how can we transform our societies to be inclusive and accessible for all? Find out at the panel discussion, where diplomats and experts who have joined forces will discuss the way forward under three key themes: Inclusive UN, Accessibility, and Engaging Broader Society.

A Day For All is a consortium formed by United Nations agencies and civil society organizations, to jointly celebrate International Day of Persons with Disabilities

In collaboration with

The permanent missions of the Argentine Republic,
Brazil, Bulgaria, Finland,
Israel, Mexico, New Zealand, the Republic of Korea

Civil society organizations:
ICRC, IDA, IFRC
