UN Road Safety Collaboration webinar:
Making quality, timely, life-saving emergency care accessible to all

Thursday, April 27  14:30-16:00 CET

14:30 – 14:40 Opening
With Etienne Krug
Director of the Department of Social Determinants of Health, WHO

14:40 – 14:55 WHO’s work on emergency care in low- and middle-income countries
With Vanessa Naidoo
Technical Officer, Clinical Services and Systems, Department of Integrated Health Services, WHO

14:55 – 15:05 Presentation of Advocating for emergency care: a guide for non-governmental organizations
With Charles Mock
Professor of Surgery, University of Washington, USA

15:05 – 15:35 Panel on how government interventions and NGO advocacy are enhancing emergency care
Gelilia Mengistu
Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine and Critical Care, Technical Advisor to Medical Service Lead Executive Office, Ministry of Health, Ethiopia
Claire Hoyland
Director of Post-Crash Response and Fire Aid Programmes, Eastern Alliance for Safe and Sustainable Transport, UK
Karuna Raina
Director of Public Policy and Research, SaveLIFE Foundation
Andres Rubiano
Medical and Research Director, MEDITECH Foundation, Colombia

15:35 – 15:55 Q and A

15:55 – 16:00 Closing
With Lotte Brondum
Executive Director, Global Alliance of NGOs for Road Safety

REGISTER HERE