

WHO and Religions for Peace Global Conference

Strengthening national responses to health emergencies: WHO, Religious Leaders, Faith-based Organizations, Faith Communities and National Governments

Join faith leaders, international organisations, health professionals, academics, government representatives, and communities from around the world to discuss innovative responses and good practice examples for the current and future health emergencies.

REGISTER HERE

1

Spiritual care during times of crisis

20 October 1000-1230 CEST

- Chaplaincy: Critical and changing roles in COVID-19
- Palliative care during COVID-19

21 October 1400-1630 CEST

- Innovations in delivering spiritual and mental health care
- Closing places of worship: Social care consequences and responses

2

Collaboration in health emergencies: WHO, faith partners and national governments

3 November 1000-1130 CET

- WHO Strategy for Engaging Religious Leaders, Faith-Based Organizations and Faith Communities in Health Emergencies & Kenya case study

4 November 1430-1530 CET

- Zimbabwe case study

10 November 0900-1130 CET

- Philippines & Nigeria case studies

3

Communication and advocacy for vaccine equity, access, and uptake

24 November 1400-1500 CET

4

Trust and health histories

Date to be confirmed

