

Management Response to SDG3 GAP Joint Evaluability Assessment (JEA) recommendations

November 2021

Joint Evaluability Assessment Recommendation	Progress against Recommendation
Jointly review and revisit the purpose &amp; shared objectives	✓ Positioning paper approved by Principals – Nov 2020 Updated positioning paper focused on an equitable and resilient recovery finalized – Sep 2021
Articulate a clear and detailed theory of change	✓ Theory of change approved by Principals – Nov 2020
Make the GAP more concrete and accountable	✓ Monitoring framework developed (May 2021), piloting underway Roll-out to LIC and LMIC ongoing
Review the overall resourcing of the GAP activities	Initiated, to be further guided by Principals' discussion on agencies' contributions
Revisit the linkages between &amp; among accelerator WGs	✓ Happening through country implementation supported by cross-accelerator work, equity cluster
Map out the steps to the 2023 evaluation	✓ Management response to JEA and tracking of progress; 2023 independent evaluation included in evaluation workplan

