

World Health
Organization

Promoting the health of refugees and migrants: experiences from around the world

10 May 2023, 14:30-15:30 CET

Virtual, on Zoom

14.30 ● Opening by the Moderator

- Dr Santino Severoni, Director, Health and Migration Programme (PHM), World Health Organization (WHO)

14.35 ● Opening remarks

- Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, Director-General, WHO (video message)
- Dr Ailan Li, Assistant Director-General, UHC/Healthier Populations

14.45 ● New Zealand | Training for health professionals working with migrants and former refugees in the Waitematā Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) service

- Dr Sue Lim QSM, eCALD® National Programme Director, Te Whatu Ora Health New Zealand

14.52 ● Peru | Towards integration of the migrant population in health policies through creation of the Functional Unit of Health of Migrant and Border Populations in the Ministry of Health

- Ms Normy Wieslawa De Pawlikowski Amiel, Director General of the Office for International Cooperation from the Ministry of Health

14.59 ● Pakistan | Enhancing COVID-19 coverage through mobile vaccination services for Afghan refugees, nomads and marginalized populations

- Dr Ali Shirazi, Coordinator, Team lead-Health System Development (HSD), WHO Country Office, Pakistan

15.06 ● UNICEF | Implementation of the Refugee and Migrant Child-Health Initiative (Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Greece, Italy and Serbia) to safeguard the health of refugee and migrant children

- James McQuen Patterson, Senior Adviser, Health in Emergencies and Humanitarian Settings unit, United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) headquarters

15.11 ● Questions and Answers

15.21 ● Closing remarks

- Ms Ugochi Daniels, Deputy Director General for Operations, International Organization for Migration (IOM)
- Mr Raouf Mazou, Assistant High Commissioner for Operations, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)