

SESSION

The role of brief behavioural interventions in a combination prevention approach to STIs, including HIV

Current achievements, challenges and way forward

Date:

Tuesday, 6
September

Time:

12h00 - 13h30
[UCT+2]

Venue:

Kalundu
Conference
Room

Chairs:

Soe Soe Thwin,
Clara Sandoval
and Igor Toskin

Presentations:

Socio-behavioural interventions in STI/HIV prevention: WHO perspective

Igor Toskin

World Health Organization

Scientific evidence of effectiveness of brief behavioural interventions for shifting sexual health outcomes

Rob Stephenson

Center for Sexuality and Health Disparities - University of Michigan

Socio-behavioural interventions to increase access to sexual health among key populations: The experience of Peru, including some results from the BSC project

Carlos Cáceres

*CISSS - Universidad
Peruana Cayetano
Heredia*

Socio-behavioural interventions to increase access to sexual health among various populations: The experience of Republic of Moldova, including some results from the BSC project

Galina Lesco

*National Resource
Centre in YFHS NEOVITA
- Moldova*

Holistic approach to sexual health from a training perspective: MOOC Rights,
Sexual Health & Education (RSE)

Thierry Troussier

UNESCO Chair Sexual Health & Human Rights - France