

Live WHO and HRP sessions at FIGO XXIII.

S008 - Caesarean Section Live: WHO Shares the Latest on Rates, Research, Recommendations, and the Robson Platform

Date: Friday October 22

Time: 9:00 AM Europe/Geneva

Chair:

Maria Regina Torloni, Brazil

Where Are We Now?

Speaker: Ana Pilar Betran, Switzerland

Monitoring the Safety of Caesarean Delivery in South Africa - Has There Been Progress?

Speaker: Sue Fawcus, South Africa

Experience in Thailand to Implement Non-Clinical Interventions

Speaker: Pisake Lumbiganon, Thailand

Online Robson Classification Platform

Speaker: Svetlin Kolev, Switzerland

S076 - Strengthening Access to Maternal Health Services through Universal Health Coverage (UHC) And Implications for Service Delivery: Lessons from Ghana, Malaysia and Morocco

Date: Friday 22 October

Time: 9:00 AM Europe/Geneva

Chair:

Lale Say, Switzerland

Overview of the global landscape of integrating maternal health services into UHC

Speaker: Georges Danhouno, Switzerland

Strengthening Service Delivery of Maternal Health Services in Ghana: Implications for Equity, Access and Quality of Care

Speaker: Augustina Koduah, Ghana

Strengthening Service Delivery of Maternal Health Services in Malaysia: Implications for Equity, Access and Quality of Care

Speaker: Shiang Cheng, Malaysia

Implementation of Maternal Health Services in Morocco: Implications for Access and Quality of Care

Speaker: Sanae El Omrani, Morocco

Live Panellist:

Veloshee Govender, Switzerland

Wrap-Up:

Adriane Martin Hilber

S100 - Putting Out the Fire! – Managing the Risks of Extreme Heat on Maternal and Newborn Health Arising from Climate Change

Date: Monday 25 October

Time: 12.00pm Europe/ Geneva

Chair:

Nathalie Roos, Sweden

The Impact of Extreme Heat on Maternal and Newborn Outcomes in Africa

Speaker: Sari Kovats, United Kingdom

How Heatwaves affect Maternal and Newborn Care Behaviours: Perspectives from Women and Health Providers

Speaker: Seni Kouanda, Burkina Faso

Adapting your Clinical Care to Safeguard Women and Newborns during Heatwaves

Speaker: Matthew Chersich, South Africa

Views of Health Professionals on Climate Change and Health: a Multinational Survey Study – The Lancet Planetary Health

Speaker: Frances McConville, Switzerland

Response by FIGO and ICM to the Views of Health Professionals: What are the Next Steps for Professional Organisations?Speakers:

Diarmid Campbell-Lendrum, Switzerland

Franka Cadée, Netherlands

Jeanne Ann Conry, United States

S025 - Global Strategy: Realising an End to Cervical Cancer

Date: Monday 25 October

Time: 2.30pm Europe/Geneva

Chairs:

Neerja Bhatla, India

Raul Murillo, Colombia

Screening and Treatment Recommendations

Speaker: Nathalie Broutet, Switzerland

Patient Perspective

Speaker: Karen Nakawala, United States

Success Transitioning to HPV DNA Tests

Speaker: Mamadou Diop, Senegal

The Use of Colposcopy in Screening and Treatment Algorithms

Speaker: Linda Eckert, Switzerland

Other live sessions at FIGO XXIII with WHO focus

S041 - A FIGO/WHO Collaboration: Disseminating Family Planning Guidelines at a Global Level

Date: Tuesday 26 October

Time: 2.30pm Europe/Geneva

Organised by: FIGO Project: MEC for Contraceptive Use and World Health Organization (WHO)

Chair:

James Kiari, Switzerland

The WHO FP Accelerator Project

Speaker: Rita Kabra, Switzerland

Training through FIGO

Speaker: Anita Makins, United Kingdom

FIGO and WHO Collaboration: Monitoring And Evaluation

Speaker: Neda Taghinejadi, United Kingdom

Roll Out in Nepal - Obgyn Perspective

Speaker: Heera Tuladhar, Nepal

Roll Out in India - Midwifery perspective

Speaker: Anitha Gokala, India