

Enroll today!

WHOacademy

Infection prevention and control
Training courses

The Infection prevention and control (IPC) training course catalog provides general courses designed for all health workers, as well as more advanced courses specific to IPC focal points.

Basic courses for all health workers

Introduction to IPC EN 1 h

Basic microbiology EN 1 h

Hand hygiene EN 1 h

The role of personal protective equipment EN 1 h

Injection safety and needle-stick injury management EN 2 h

Waste management EN 1 h

Environmental cleaning and disinfection EN 1 h

Transmission-based precautions EN 1 h

Infection prevention and control in maternal and neonatal care EN 6 h

My five moments of hand hygiene EN 1 h

ADVANCED courses for IPC focal point

IPC core components and multimodal strategies EN 1 h

Leadership and programme management in IPC EN 4 h

Antimicrobial resistance and infection prevention and control EN 3 h
Coming soon

Health-care associated infection surveillance EN 3.5h

Decontamination and sterilization of medical devices EN 2 h

Bloodstream infections EN 2 h

Surgical site infections EN 5 h

Catheter-associated urinary tract infections EN 3 h

Outbreak investigations in health facilities EN 3 h

Learning to deliver training in IPC and environmental cleaning for health care facilities in low-and-middle-income countries EN 6h