

Suparna Chatterjee

Members of the WHO Expert Advisory Panel on The International Pharmacopoeia and Pharmaceutical Preparations serving the INN Expert Group

Biography

Suparna is a medical Pharmacologist and started her professional career as a Lecturer in Pharmacology, at the Institute of Postgraduate Medical Education & Research (IPGMER) in Kolkata in the year 2000. She has progressed through the ranks to Professor since 2013. Her primary responsibilities entail postgraduate and undergraduate medical teaching and research in Clinical Pharmacology.

Suparna has domain expertise in the field of patient safety and pharmacovigilance and is serving as an expert member of various national advisory groups working on medicine and vaccine safety and new drug approvals in her country. She is a member of the national Vaccine safety surveillance and signal review panels and Chair of the training panel on pharmacovigilance in her country.

Suparna is also a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians (London) and has been inducted as a temporary adviser of the WHO INN Expert advisory group in 2020. In her current position, she is trying to establish professional interactions with India and international partners.