

Stephanie Carpenter Shubat

Members of the WHO Expert Advisory Panel on The International Pharmacopoeia and Pharmaceutical Preparations serving the INN Expert Group

Biography

Since 2005, Stephanie Shubat has been the Director of the United States Adopted Names (USAN) Program housed at the American Medical Association (AMA) in Chicago, IL.

Prior to becoming the USAN Program Director in 2005, Stephanie was a Scientist for the USAN Program.

Stephanie is a 30 year employee of the AMA and has held positions in Accreditation Policy, (AMAP) Clinical Quality Improvement, Consumer Relations, Consumer Affairs, and Survey and Opinion Research. While in AMA's Consumer Affairs Division, Stephanie developed and analyzed viewer polls for American Medical Television and was the Managing Editor for Good Housekeeping medical news inserts and for two pilot issues of AMA's Living Well magazine.

She is also co-author of a book summarizing 10 years of AMA physician and public opinion research, entitled Physician and Public Attitudes on Health Care Issues, published in 1989.

She received her Master's Degree in Health Systems Management in 1984 from Rush University, Chicago and earned her B.S. degree in Biology from Loyola University, Chicago.