

Abbreviated Biosketch for Proposed Members of the Guideline Development Group

| | |
|---|---|
| Title: | Professor |
| First name: | Joe |
| Last name: | Amon |
| Current position: | Director, Global Health and Clinical Professor |
| Affiliation: | Dornsife School of Public Health, Drexel University |
| Country: | USA |
| Joe Amon, PhD, MSPH, is the Director of the Office of Global Health and Clinical Professor in the Department of Community Health and Prevention at the Drexel Dornsife School of Public Health. He received his PhD in Medical Zoology from the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences and his MSPH in Parasitology from Tulane University. He has worked for a wide range of governmental and non-governmental organizations, including the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, FHI360, Helen Keller International and the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research. During his ten-year tenure at Human Rights Watch he founded programs on human rights and health, disability and the environment. Dr. Amon has also held visiting or adjunct academic appointments with Paris School of International Affairs (SciencesPo), Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences, Princeton, Columbia, and Johns Hopkins Universities as well as the Institute for Advanced Studies (Princeton). Dr Amon is a member of the Strategic and Technical Advisory Group of UNAIDS and co-chair of the organization's Reference Group on HIV and Human Rights. He is also a member of a working group on monitoring and evaluation at the Global Fund and has served on several WHO advisory committees related to ethics and human rights related to HIV and TB. Dr. Amon is also on the editorial board and ethics committee of the Journal of the International AIDS Society and is Senior Editor of the Health and Human Rights Journal which is co-published by Harvard and Drexel Universities. | |