

Private sector dialogue on SDG 3.4 Noncommunicable diseases (NCDs)

Strengthening the commitment and contribution of the pharmaceutical industry to the National NCD Response

Dialogue 3 – Diabetes: Keeping the 100-year promise – Actions speak louder than words

Provisional agenda

2 November 2022, WHO headquarters, Geneva, Switzerland

Time	Agenda item	Presenter/facilitator
14:00–14:10	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Welcome and opening remarks Background, review of the agenda and objectives for the meeting 	WHO/ MHP
14:10–14:30	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Briefing on NCD response and progress: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Global Diabetes Compact WHA 74.4 diabetes targets Heads of State, NCD Compact Progress by WHO on improving access to insulin and health technologies 	WHO/NCD WHO/HPS WHO/RPQ Information sharing
14:30–14:40	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Recap of the past dialogues and the WHO asks 	WHO/NCD Information sharing
14:40–15:00	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Present the WHO Secretariat's asks that can be addressed through engagement with private sector entities including the pharmaceutical industry. Selected presentations and announcements from entities on the commitments to the WHO asks. 	WHO/NCD Manufacturer feedback Open discussion for participants
15:00–15:30	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Closing remarks and reception 	WHO/UCN