Signs and symptoms potentially suggestive of human African trypanosomiasis

- Long standing headaches
- Long-lasting fever, resistant to usual treatments
- Cervical nodes
- Behavioural disorders (aggression, apathy, mental confusion)
- Motor disorders (Convulsions, abnormal movements, tremors, difficulty with walking)
- Severe weight loss and weakness
- Sleep disorders (excessive daytime sleep)