

Dr Huda Alsiyabi

Biography of proposed Guidelines Development Group

Dr Huda Alsiyabi is a senior consultant in public health. Currently works as a Director of the department of community based initiatives at the Ministry of Health in Oman. She graduated from the Sultan Qaboos University as a medical doctor then had MA/ Postgraduate Diploma in education in health and social care from the University of Reading, UK. She is a member of different committees such as the technical committee of His Majesty award for volunteerism, national committee of non-communicable diseases and GCC committee of healthy cities. Participated in developing different manuals and guidelines and conducted several projects related to community-based initiatives and physical activity in health in Oman.