

PERUVIAN NATIONAL REPORT
20th INTERNATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING
Geneva, Switzerland, 4-6 May 2015

I. RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

The Ministry of Transports and Communications has continued its nationwide program on NIR measurements including the capital city Lima and other cities located in 24 regions with nearly 3000 places.

II. NEW POLICIES AND LEGISLATIONS

Regulation of Law N° 29022 –Law for the Strengthening of Telecommunications Infrastructure Expansion that includes the obligation of checking the compliance of Maximum Permissible Limits for Non-Ionizing Radiations from Telecommunications (LMP-RNI) for every telecommunication station and also it establishes the obligation for every telecommunication station of disguising antennas.

III. PUBLIC INFORMATION ACTIVITIES

The Ministry of Transports and Communications, several regional and local governments and the University of San Marcos had been conducting several conferences on NIR including 10 main fora in Lima and some Peruvian cities and towns in order to disseminate the status on NIR research and regulation in Peru. We also have International Forum TELECOMMUNICATIONS ANTENAS, DEVELOPMENT, INCLUSION AND HUMAN HEALTH. WHO: Results of the research on non-ionizing radiations which took place in Lima, July 10-11, 2014 with more than 1000 participants.

IV. INFORMATION TOOLS

Through the web sites of:

- National University of Engineering, Peruvian National Institute for Research and Training in Telecommunications (INICTEL-UNI), <http://rni.inictel-uni.edu.pe>
- Ministry of Transports and Communications
<http://antenasysalud.pe>