

National activities on EMF radiation - Luxembourg (activities after transposition of EU physical agents Directives) population: 602005 inhabitants on 1.1.2018

concerns: electric fields, magnetic fields, electromagnetic fields

· General research activities in your country related to non-ionizing radiation (NIR) health

none

· New policies and legislations regarding NIR exposure

none

· Areas of public concern and national responses

With a frequency of about or less than 5 contacts per year the Health Directorate receives questions by telephone or mail about the top 5 subjects below :

ELF: high voltage lines and transformers / solar cells

HF: wifi / smartmeters / mobile telephony including LTE

Responses are provided by directly answering questions and, where appropriate, by performing measurements

· New public information activities

none