

NORWAY

Report on EMF activities June 2015 – June 2016

General research activities in your country related to EMF health

No research has been performed in Norway during the period.

New policies and legislations regarding EMF exposure

Norway has not performed any new policies or legislations during 2014.

Areas of public concern and national responses

The situation in Norway is calm at the moment.

New public information activities

Nothing to report.