

One Health Plus Integrated Antimicrobial Stewardship Approach in Bangladesh

- An integrated One Health Approach Based National Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR) Surveillance Strategy of Bangladesh is adopted and being operationalise (2021-2025).
- Public-Private Partnership is being developed to include private laboratories in the National AMR surveillance Program
- One Health AMR Data Dashboard is being developed at One Health Secretariat
- Bangladesh AMR Response Alliance (BARA) has been working since 2017 as a community of practice committed to responsible use of antimicrobials
- Antimicrobial Stewardship and Clinical Engagement program based on One Health PPS
- A Revised National AMR Containment Strategy with costed Action Plan has been developed and endorsed (2022-26) based on Political Economic Analysis (PEA)