

GUIDE FOR PARTICIPANTS

Comic and Illustration Competition “Women and COVID-19”

The Competition

UN Women, WHO, and the Ministry of Women Empowerment and Child Protection is organising a “Women and COVID-19” Comic and Illustration Competition. The organizers gracefully acknowledge the financial support from the Government of Japan for this initiative.

We invite you to visualize your understanding and highlight the COVID-19 pandemic from the perspective of women and girls in Indonesia. We want you to show us what comes to your mind when you reflect on how women’s lives have changed during the pandemic and/or how women are playing a central role in preventing the spread of COVID-19 and keeping their families and communities safe and resilient.

Participants are encouraged to submit drawing(s) under specific topics including:

- Women’s important leadership and contributions to COVID-19 response. (e.g. Women as local leaders, healthcare workers, supporting survivors of violence, health ambassadors to their communities, stepping up for public service, as agents of peace, as educators, etc.).
- Positive gender and social norm change to promote equal sharing of care and domestic works.
- Women’s situation during COVID-19 and the changes that you want to see, in the area of:
 - Women and health, including “Ingat Pesan Ibu” to 3M “Mencuci tangan (washing hands), Memakai masker (wearing masks) and Menjaga jarak (keeping a distance)”
 - Women in business and/or cooperatives.
 - Women and migration.
 - Women in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM).
 - Women’s rights.
 - Women and education.
 - Women in the informal sector.
 - Elimination of all forms of violence against women in the public and private spheres, including online gender-based violence.
 - Ending all forms of discrimination against all women, including racism, misogyny, and hate speech.

Entries

The competition is open to Indonesian nationals and participants will be divided into two categories:

Category I: 15-24 years old (on 16 October 2020).
