

Panelist/expert	Brief resume	Title of presentation
Dr Dyah E Mustikawat 	Dr Dyah is Deputy Director of Occupational Health and Surveillance, Ministry of Health, Indonesia. She has more than 25 years of experience in various key roles in occupational health, migrant health, road traffic injury prevention and control, health promotion, AIDS, TB and noncommunicable disease	Implementation of health protocols for informal workers: practical interventions being followed in Indonesia, together with implementation and monitoring
Ms Rowena Sy 	Ms Rowena Sy has over 15 years of human resource management experience. Her background spans across strategic business partnering, talent acquisition and development, rewards and organizational design, project management, employee relations, learning and organization transformation. She has held both country and regional roles throughout her HR career in the Philippines, Malaysia, Myanmar and now in Thailand.	Measures at Unilever Thailand to protect employee safety during the COVID-19 pandemic
Ms Susan Thomas 	Ms Susan Thomas has been active in the field of health and development for the past 36 years. She is currently the National Health Coordinator in the Self-Employed Women's Association (SEWA) where she also manages the child care department. As a public health and development professional her focus has been to work on various aspects of issues surrounding women, young people and children with a particular focus on health.	Issues faced by women in the informal sector in India during the COVID-19 pandemic
  Ms Chetna Lakhoo-Verbeek    Ms Elizabeth Kenyon   	Ms Chetna Lakhoo-Verbeek serves as Chief of Commercial and General Services Section at UN ESCAP and is a member of the Division of Administration Crisis Management Team for COVID-19 response. She has been instrumental in supporting and coordinating operational preparations during the initial COVID-19 response and now as staff gradually return to office. Ms Elizabeth Kenyon is a professional engineer currently working as ESCAP Assistant Coordinator for COVID	Phased measures for a gradual and safe return to work at UN ESCAP
Dr Ivan Ivanov 	Dr Ivanov is medical doctor with an MPH in occupational health and PhD in the sociology of health and the environment. His current role is in leading the Global Occupational and Workplace Health Programme at WHO headquarters in Geneva. Currently Dr Ivanov serves as occupational health officer in the COVID-19 response team of the WHO Global Emergencies Programme	Priority activities and information resources of WHO
Dr Thaksaphon (Mek) Thamarangsi 	Director, Healthier Populations and Noncommunicable Diseases (HPN) WHO Regional Office for South-East Asia New Delhi, India	Moderator of this webinar series