Proposed 2021 Workplan for WHO-RTG CCS on Migrant Health

5 Feb 2021

Objectives of the 2021 WHO-CCS Priority Programme on Migrant Health

Overall Objective:

To contribute to the improved health security of Thailand through building up and strengthen institutional capacities of the concerned agencies to generate evidence for evidence-based policy decisions and coherence policies on health security of vulnerable migrants and people with citizenship problems in Thailand.

Outcomes: 2021 Strategic Perspectives area of work: Health system Strategic information for National migrant health Beneficiaries: policy implementation strategic plan S1: Migrant knowledge Evaluation of situations - Legal Accessibility Health - Illegal generation Clear & effective A structure of focal agency to quality security - Family and on migrant health within administration structure service management the MOPH Human right Vulnerable increased health Social dialogue on - Stateless S2: Financing • Economic insurance coverage & alternative policies to Border people policy improve health of MWs & create sustainable health Disadvantaged advocacy vulnerable coverage for non-Thai child citizen & Law drafting - Asylum seeker S3: & over stayer institutional Improvement of targeted capacity health facilities to quality Preparedness and building & culturally response against epidemic and Sustainable partnership, among migrant workers. networking networks, collaboration & strengthen health Preventing and controlling systems and evidencehealth risk factors. based policy development

2021 Strategic Actions and Expected Outputs

Thailand National Reform Plans in Area of Public Health (as amended): Emerging infections disease, Health protection, Health security for all

The study of strategic directions for long term development for migrant health security and management.

A structure of focal agency on migrant health within the MOPH.

Evaluation of situations.

Knowledge generation and management 20%

Establish a platform to discuss on the preparedness and response against epidemic among migrant workers: lesson learn from COVID19.

Promoting social dialogue on alternative policies to create sustainable health coverage for non-Thai citizen & Law drafting.

Policy Advocacy

50%

community mapping and epidemiological data for migrants in Bangkok, Ranong, Chiang Rai, Tak and Sa Kaeo province.

Preventing and controlling health risk factors (health risk communication).

Institutional
Capacity Building
& networking

30%

2021 Timeline

Strategic	Activities	Q1	Q2		Q3		Q4
1. Knowledge management	A study of National migrant health strategic plan	Feb.						Sep
	A structure of focal agency on migrant health within the MOPH.	Jan.							Oct
	Evaluation of situations.	Jan							Oct
2. Policy advocacy	Establish a platform to discuss on the preparedness and response against epidemic among migrant workers: lesson learn from COVID19.	Feb
	social dialogue sustainable health coverage for non-Thai citizen & Law drafting.	Feb.
3. Capacity building and networking	community mapping and epidemiological data for migrants in specific area	Jan						Sep
	Preventing and controlling health risk factors.									Nov.	