

Global Technical meeting: Artificial Intelligence (AI) for Global Health: Advancing Traditional Medicine coordination meeting, 11-12 September 2024

Maki Kajiwara, Technical officer WHO Global Traditional Medicine Centre

Meeting objectives

Sharing experience
of AI use on TM
(Session 1)

Enhance Understanding
(Session 2)

Setting learning
requirements
(Session 3)

Facilitate
Knowledge Sharing
(Session 4)

Promote Collaboration
(all days)

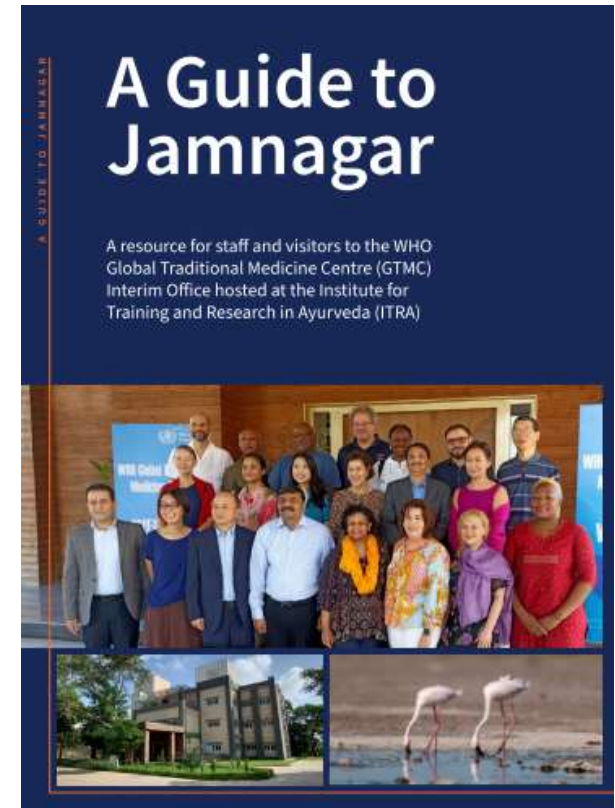

Meeting agenda: Day 1

DAY 1: 11 SEPTEMBER 2024
09:00 - 09:15	Opening session
09:15 - 10:00	Session I - Digital initiatives of the Southeast Asia region & consultation on draft technical brief on AI and TM
10:00 - 11:00	Refreshment and networking
11:00 - 13:15	AllA hospital & academic visit
13:15 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 15:00	Session II - Intellectual property (IP) and AI - safeguarding traditional medicine
15:00 - 15:55	Session II - Panel discussion
15:55 - 16:10	Refreshments and networking
16:10 - 17:00	Session II - Group work
17:00 - 17:20	Presentation by groups
17:20 - 17:30	Day 1 Closing

Meeting agenda: Day 2

DAY 2: 12 SEPTEMBER, 2024
09:00 - 09:15	Summary of Day 1
09:15 - 09:45	Session III - Development of training module for TM stakeholders
09:45 - 10:45	Session III - Panel discussion
10:45 - 11:15	Refreshment and networking
11:15 - 12:15	Session III – Group work
12:15 - 13:00	Presentation by groups
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 15:00	Session IV - Introduction to the Traditional Medicine Global Library and AI options
15:00 - 15:55	Session IV - Group work 1
15:55 - 16:10	Refreshments and networking
16:10 - 17:00	Session IV - Group work 2
17:00 - 17:20	Presentation by groups
17:20 - 17:30	Day 2 Closing

WHO Global Traditional Medicine Centre (GTMC) Jamnagar, Gujarat, India

THANK YOU

For more information on WHO Global Traditional Medicine Centre
www.who.int/initiatives/who-global-centre-for-traditional-medicine

Contact WHO Global Traditional Medicine Centre: tmcentre@who.int

